The following are activities of the Chinese Communist Air Force (CCAF) for the period 13 to 19 May 1951:*

- a. On 13 May the CCAF made 33 sorties. The Antung field was closed at 0545, the Tsinan field at 0600 and 1140, the Ch'engtu field at 1600, the Chungking field at 0600 and 1600, and the Hankow field at 0600. The Yangts'un field was opened at 1623. From 1700 to 1900 two type-45 planes flew over Antung. At 0700 14 YAK-11 planes left Mukden under the command of LIN Hu (林虎) and returned to Mukden by way of Hsinmin (122-43, 41-59). Two WYB-2 senior trainers were dispatched from Mukden to reconnoiter a fire at Kuo K'uei Shan (庫爾喀山) and San Tuo Ho Tzu (三道河子) in Northern Chahar.
- b. On 14 May the CCAF made 136 sorties. The Hankow field was closed at 0600 and opened at 1205, the Nanking field closed at 0700, and the Ch'engtu field closed at 0710 and opened at 0755. At 0600 ten MIG-15's, 1 YAK-11, and 14 YAK-17's took off from Anshan under the command of Hsiao-lao-tao-fu (高老陶夫) (? Khalatov). At 0600 one YAK-12 left Mukden flown by Ts'wei-chin-k'o (崔維金考) (? Pavzhinko). At 0800 LIN Hu led 64 unidentified planes in a flight from Mukden. At 0530 hours 28 TU-2 planes took off from K'aiyuan.
- c. On 15 May the CCAF made 66 sorties. At 0900 one YAK-11 and 19 MIG-15 planes took off from Anshan under the command of LI K'e-ying (李克英), flew over Hsinmin, and returned to Anshan at 1400 hours. KAO Lien-chin (高連金) led 12 MIG-15 planes in practice flights over Mukden between 1100 and 1400. One MIG-15 practiced flying over Antung between 0728 and 0858. Four IL-12 planes, numbered 23, 32, 38, and 39, and one transport, number 3006, took off and landed 17 times between 0812 and 1455 in the Hankow area.

Comment: For a report on Chinese Communist Air Force activities from 6 to 12 May, see [REDACTED] 25X1A

25X1A

Comment: When the lapse of time between departure and arrival seems to exceed the time it would normally take for a plane to make the trip, it is possible that the plane made an intermediate stop. In this case the stop was at Chinchou.
